

Connecting the gifts of generous people with caring congregations walking with the poor in the Greater Milwaukee Synod—ELCA

OUTREACH FOR HOPE gathers financial gifts to support ministries working in communities of poverty. These congregations and ministry centers provide . . .

- Groceries
- Summer neighborhood camps
- Clothing
- After school tutoring
- Meals
- Job counseling
- Medical care
- Neighborhood ministries

Most importantly, ministries supported by OUTREACH FOR HOPE give people . . .

- A place to know they are valued and loved
- A place where emotional and spiritual resources are made real in God's love thru communities of faith
- A place that is a beacon of hope in the midst of their neighborhood

In an average week, OUTREACH FOR HOPE ministries . . .

- Serve 4,263 meals
- Welcome 2,198 people to worship
- Open their buildings to 5,522 people from the community
- Give 428 volunteers a place to be involved

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor."

Luke 4:18
